Links or a reference to third parties in no way implies endorsement or approval by the Township of Stone Mills.

Any material downloaded or otherwise obtained through the use of the www.stonemills.com web site is done at your own discretion and risk. The Township of Stone Mills is not responsible in any manner for damages resulting from the use of this web site.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

The Township of Stone Mills is committed to protecting the privacy of any personal information you may provide when visiting our web site. The following explains what information may be collected and why.

Using the www.stonemills.com web site does not require you to provide any of your personal information. If you submit a request to a Township department or wish to register for a program, you will be asked to provide your name, mailing and/or e-mail address and other relevant information so that we can respond to your request. Any information you provide will be used only by employees responding to your request.

The Township of Stone Mills does not sell or share any personal information provided through the web site or otherwise except with the consent of the individual to whom the information relates.

Web Site Logging practices

The Township of Stone Mills logs HTTP requests to the Township Web server. These logs record the IP address of site visitors. An IP address is the number automatically assigned to the computer or to the ISP (Internet Service Provider) requesting a URL.

Our logging is passive and we do not use technologies such as “cookies” or “Web bugs” to maintain any information on site visitors. Logged information, also known as click stream data, is recorded in non-identifiable form and is used by Township staff or those under contract for Web site system administration. Log files are archived and used for systems analysis, maintenance and site evaluation.
